#16425DaysASlave

"The ownership of the Miami Seaquarium now spans two large corporations (Palace Entertainment and Parques Reunidos listed below) and a holding company that just wants to sell them both at a good price. To them Lolita is an asset to sell, but if enough people know that Palace Entertainment is responsible for Lolita's continued incarceration, keeping her may become more of a liability to their image and reputation, and they might be more inclined to help her retire as other pressures mount."
